Dear Madam,

We would like to provide commentaries to the source of income available to Anastasia Chepa.

The shares in the company were a gift made to Anastasia Chepa by her father Alexey Chepa.

Mr. Alexey Chepa historically held some corporate assets abroad. As part of succession planning he transferred shares of these companies to his children, daughter Anastasia and son Daniil. The gift is not to be repaid.

Currently all business are operated under the control of professional directors and trustees.

Mr. Alexey Chepa is a successful Russian businessman. Since 1990 he implemented a number of projects in different sectors of economy, including processing of agricultural and fish products, transportation, property development, energy and new technologies.

Since 2005, Mr. Alexey organized several companies that were involved in biotechnology and nanotechnology (LLC "New Energy Technologies", LLC "Nanorobototehnika", LLC "Plasmonics", etc.). The companies own several hundred scientific and international patents.

The above-mentioned companies operate the production of high standard medical equipment based on the latest laser technologies, nanotechnologies, and renewable energy generation. They have received several international awards and won a number of long-term government contracts. Mr. Alexey has transferred the ownership of these projects under trust management.

He has been actively involved in promotion of international business cooperation, mainly in the international development projects. Amongst the completed projects are property and resort developments in Bulgaria. The recent project Morakot resort in Cambodia (www.kohpuos.com), a development project with a total build up area of more than 2 million sqm. A project which has been given as a gift to his daughter Anastasia Chepa 93% and Costas Economou 7%, his trusted friend since 1992, that now (since 2012) manages and controls all the children's interest with advisors. This structure is under a Cyprus company, Vironia Enterprises Ltd.

Kind regards,

Loizos Hadjiloizou
Director
